Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Of all the extraordinary things that could have happened, having Jenny Riley show up at his door in the middle of the night was not something Kyle could have prepared for. Seven years ago, he d had a vicious falling out with her brother Jake, and the Rileys had left town. Now she was back, but what were her motives? Was she dropping out of law school, running away from her overbearing brother, or was she really here because she needed to take a break? Jenny had done everything her brother expected of her, but her successes felt empty. With a bleak future looming on the horizon, her only chance of survival is to run home. Back in Marsten, protected by the only man she s ever loved, Jenny s life begins to make sense, just as Kyle s begins to turn upside down. Will he finally see her as more than Jake s little sister? Will he let her stay, despite the growing rumors about them in town? And will Jenny finally stand up to her brother when he realizes she s in love with the one man he hates.
