ESCAPE FROM ENLIGHTENMENT: MARLEY S JOURNEY (PAPERBACK)

Falling Pine Publishing, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Marley is coming of age in a post apocalyptic, radically feminist society. Women have wrested all power and authority from men, who are kept in prison camps so they will never again wage wars and abuse women. Babies are incubated in artificial wombs and engineered to be attracted to their own sex. The process, however, doesn't always work. Marley worries about feeling no attraction to other girls until she meets Maddy. But she needs to win Maddy away from the odd values of a barely tolerated subculture. And Maddy would be horrified to know that Marley views illicit online pictures of boys. An interview with the author, Tessa Rose: What does the reader get from this book? Marley's Journey pulls straight readers into the experience of having unacceptable sexuality. The story unfolds into a dangerous journey for love involving boys from camps and subversives who run an underground railroad to a secret haven where heterosexuals can be safe. There is love and romance of several varieties, and a bit of sex. Readers can ponder social paradigms, indoctrination, prejudice, privilege, and what people do with power and authority. Are you advocating this radical feminist utopia? No. This would not be a utopia for me or any feminists I know. I like having men around. I found it quite easy to make the case against them, however. I'm inviting readers to think their own thoughts about power, patriarchy, and gender. Did you write this for LGBT's or straight people? I wrote it for both. For people who like getting into other people's shoes. For people who like seeing things turned around. The turnarounds can be humorous, complicated, or...
