Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This is a story of a young Colt (Little Red) pondering everyday why the owners and trainers never pick him to train with the other race horses. A father he has never met; is haunted by his negative reputation for being a slow horse. Cast under his father s shadow, he is laughed at and shunned by other race horses. But with the help of his mother, he learns the fundamental rules of becoming a great race horse. He captures the attention of the owner s daughter (Alma). And with the right training, Little Red might have a chance to win races and make his dream come true. Join us on this incredible roller coaster ride and see if Little Red can remove himself from his father s shadow by understanding his bloodline and what it means to become a great race horse. Does he learn the truth about his family tree? Does he become the horse he is supposed to be? Or does he fall under pressure from the agonizing torment the other horses give him? Let s go find out!.
