By Natalie Zonis

GRIN Verlag GmbH. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 60 pages. Dimensions: 8.1in. x 5.8in. x 0.3in. Seminar paper from the year 2009 in the subject Business economics - Business Management, Corporate Governance, grade: 1, 3, University of Applied Sciences Berlin, language: English, abstract: What do the construction of the Pyramids of Giseh or of the Great Wall of China, Hannibals Alps crossing and the Berlin Airlift have in common These all are examples for famous and inspiring historical projects which would have never been realized without a profound planning, execution, coordination, and control. Mankind seems to have a lot of experience coming from fields like construction, engineering and defense on one hand. On the other hand we almost daily hear about projects that have failed or havent met customers expectations and as a result have even ruined whole companies and organizations. Every year 75 Billion US Dollars have been spent on failing projects only in IT-sector. Only 17 percent of all software projects done in the United States meet the original targets, 50 percent must have those target changed. All that happens today, when branches and industries are faced with rough economic and highly competitive environments with an increasing market concentration...
