Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Mortgage on the Hip-Roof House The table was of white rock-maple of a very peculiar grain, supported on two pairs of crossed legs connected by braces running from the top of one set to the bottom of the other, on each side. Across each end was nailed a narrow strip of that beautiful wood, the sycamore, the soft, reddish surface of which, dotted with minute yellow scales, contrasted pleasantly with the snowy maple. The whole was spotlessly clean, and bore evidence of that peculiar finish which only years of use and frequent scouring can confer. Looking at the-edges, one could see that the boards had been worn thinner in the middle than at either end. The boy took some blue-edged plates with curious dragon figures in the middle, and some little horn handled knives and forks, the former thin and narrow, from a cupboard in the corner of the room, and placed them on the table.
